RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Competent judges will be arranged for in each department.
2. Judges will be guided by the American Standard of perfection, the Comparison System.
3. Animals competing for prizes, except in children's pony classes must be in show pens from 8:00 A. M. August 27th to 6:00 P. M. on August 28th, or until released by supervisor.
4. Entries of all exhibits and contests must be in the hands of the Secretary not later than August 22nd, otherwise no pen space will be reserved. No fees are charged for entries.
5. Hay and other feeds must be brought by exhibitor, or may be purchased from the contracting dealers, who will take orders and deliver twice a day. Exhibitors must furnish their own feed troughs, water pails, etc.
6. Pens must be clean and neat. Litter must be piled and wagons will make the rounds and gather the same each morning.
7. The decision of the judges will be final in all cases. Checks for prize money will be mailed to winners after the show.
8. Department supervisors will assign pens and stalls to exhibitors and will have complete charge of departments.
9. Animals must be brought to the show ring promptly at the call of the judges.
10. This show is a community enterprise and not conducted for profit. Hence all exhibitors and patrons agree that the management will not be held responsible for accidents, injuries or illness to animals or persons, or damages to property during the show or en-route.
11. Demonstration and educational booths not operated for private profit will be assigned free space by the Secretary, upon his arrival. Exclusive refreshment franchise has already been awarded. Amusement concessionaires should make application to the Concession Department supervisor.
12. Bonafied 4-H Club members and Vocational Agr. Project students whose record books are up to date and signed by the County Agent or the Agricultural teacher may compete in the Junior division with their personally owned animals.
13. We encourage entries from outside the county in each Department

14. Two premiums only will be paid to any one exhibitor in a class.
Where there is only one competitor in any class, not more than one premium will be awarded. The judge may award lower than first premium in such a case if he feels that the exhibit does not merit first award.
15. State Board of Agriculture ruling on Bang Abortion Disease. All dairy and breeding cattle over six months of age offered for exhibition purposes at County Fair, shall have passed a satisfactory negative agglutination test prior to date of entry.
16. Because of financing the Fair by public subscription, the management reserves the privilege of substituting merchandise, purchase orders, etc., of equal or greater value in premiums advertised, and in the event of not collecting sufficient money to pay all premiums as listed, to prorate all money collected among premium winners.

Congratulations

Wasatch County Farmers & Stockgrowers

For your efforts toward making the Wasatch County Fair one of the outstanding displays of county wealth in the State of Utah.

Through the fine support you have given us our facilities and volume have grown until today, as for the past several years, we are the largest in-bound shippers, both by rail and truck in Wasatch County. We also carry the most complete stock of building materials in Eastern Utah and "Always Everything At Competitive Prices."

If you have any problem of housing, either for man or beast, we will appreciate an opportunity to make a complete and accurate estimate of the costs and show you from our stock the most desirable material for every purpose.

It is also our privilege to be able to materially assist with your financial problems through the facilities of the local agency or the Federal Housing Administration.
